ICFAI University conducts Management Development Program on “Financial Intelligence”

Today, the ICFAI University, Jharkhand (IUJ) conducted a Management Development Program on “Financial Intelligence for Professional Growth”, which was attended by a number of working managers from organizations like Jharcraft. Inaugurating the program, Prof ORS Rao, Vice Chancellor highlighted the need for financial knowledge and skills for career growth of working managers, in whatever field they work, as finance is an essential factor in taking all managerial decisions. “Financial Intelligence is also useful for managing one’s own personal finances effectively” added Prof Rao.

Addressing the participants, Dr KK Nag, Member, Board of Governors of the University exhorted the managers to acquire “Financial Intelligence” and contribute to the performance of their employer organisations. Dr BM Singh, Dean, Faculty of Management Studies and Registrar said that “This program is the first program, being conducted by the University to upgrade the skills of the working managers in Jharkhand”. Briefing the participants on the program, Dr Hari Haran, Academic Advisor of the University highlighted that the program covers all essentials needed for a working manager like working capital management, balance sheet analysis, management costing, cash flow analysis using simulation etc.

Sessions for the participants were taken by Dr SC Swain, Associate Dean (Research and Publications), Prof Sumit Sinha and Prof Sudipto Mazumdar.

All the participants appreciated the inputs they received during the program and felt that they are useful in their day-to-day professional life and personal life.
