

ICFAI University Jharkhand introduces Entrepreneurship in all of its programs

Ranchi, November 22, 2013

ICFAI University Jharkhand held its 10th Academic Council meeting at its Ashok Nagar campus.

Briefing about the discussions, Prof ORS Rao, Vice Chancellor highlighted that in order to inculcate entrepreneurship skills among the students, the University decided to include Entrepreneurship Development Course in all of its programs (BBA, BCA, BTech and MBA) of the University from 2014-15 academic year.

“It will encourage and equip the students to start their businesses, rather than looking for a job”, added Prof Rao. “Even if a student does not start a business, it will help him to work in an entrepreneurial way, in the organisation, taking ownership of the role assigned”.

“In order to facilitate diploma holders pursue B Tech Program, the University decided to admit the eligible diploma holders in second year of B Tech. program”, added Dr BM Singh, Registrar.

Members of the Academic Council attended this meeting.
