ICFAI University conducts Program on Healthcare Management

April 23, 2015

Today, ICFAI University, Jharkhand, in association with Indian Hospital Association conducted a one day Management Development Program on Health Care management at its campus in Daladali. It was attended by Doctors, CEOs and Healthcare Administrators from leading hospitals like Nagarmal Modi Seva Sadan, Raj Hospital, CCL Hospital, Kashyap Memorial Eye Hospital, 7 Palms Hospital, Santevita Hospital etc.

Welcoming the participants, Prof ORS Rao, Vice-Chancellor of the University said, “In order to improve quality and affordability of Health care in Jharkhand, in line with the vision of our Honourable Chief Minister, there is need for not only more Doctors and Nurses but also paramedical staff and healthcare administrators. Our University is keen to address this gap, by offering short term and regular courses in Healthcare Management”.

Addressing the participants, Dr RK Rai, Chairman of 7 Palms Hospital and President of Indian Hospital Association, Jharkhand said “India currently spends only 1.04% of its GDP on healthcare against a global average of 5-6%. Indian Government and Jharkhand government should spend more money so as to provide quality healthcare to the needy people.” Mr RK Saraogi, Sr VP of Nagarmal Modi Seva Sadan appreciated the initiative of the ICFAI University to focus on healthcare management, as it is essential for effective management of resources deployed in a hospital. Dr BP Kashyap, CEO of Kashyap Memorial highlighted the need for more paramedical staff. Mr Jogesh Gambhir, CEO of Raj Hospital exhorted the hospital managements to build a business model, appropriate to Jharkhand and strike balance between Quality and Affordability of healthcare, by avoiding the temptation to overinvest in non-essential equipments /facilities.

Mr Harish, GM, Sanevita, Dr Hari Haran, Academic Advisor and Dr BM Singh, Registrar of the University highlighted the need to focus on Quality, HR and Financial aspects respectively.
