

Honor Photography Week-2 Light Painting Photography Winner

Abhinav Sinha Student of MBA III from Ranchi is an honor fan for long. The light painting contest encouraged him to explore about this option in his Honor device. He studied many YouTube video for learning Light Photography and figured that it can be achieved even with a simple torch light as well. Determined to click light painting he made his brother hold the honor device and started painting himself sitting on chair through a torch light. At third final attempt he was successful in clicking the correct photo as below.
