

ICFAI University Jharkhand celebrate Engineer's Day September 15, 2016

ICFAI University Jharkhand celebrates Engineer's Day on 15th September 2016 at its Daladali Campus.

Being 156th birth day of Bharat Ratna Sir M. Visweswarayya, one of the greatest engineers produced by India students, faculties and employee paid homage to the great son of India.

Welcoming on the occasion of the Engineer's day, Dr. B M Singh, Registrar said about the life and works of Sir M. Visweswarayya and also discussed about the importance and benefits of Engineer's on this auspicious day. The contemporary Engineers of our country are also worth emulation he particularly mentioned the name of Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam, Er. Bhawesh Agrwal, Satya Nadela, Mr Narayan Murty and E Sridharan, added Dr. Singh.

Addressing the participants as chief guest, Mr. C D Goswami, General Manager, MECON Limited explains the importance of Sustainable Development in current time and role of innovations in it. Dr KK Nag, Member, Board of Governors also views their expressed on Sustainable Development.

On this occasion students presented papers and show models on the topic "Sustainable Development" and express their views. Mr. Abhishek & Group, Mr. Anand Padey, Mr Pratik Verma and Group, Ms Anjali Dubey, Mr Abhishek Tripaty and other B.Tech/Management students expressed their views and show the model and presented papers on Sustainable Development.

Dr S C Swain, Associate Dean of the University has given vote of thanks. Prof Arvind Kumar, Assit. Dean and other faculty members, staff and students participated in the function.

