N J Yasaswy (1950-2011)

Mr. N. J. Yasaswy (1950-2011), founder of the ICFAI Group of educational institutions and a pioneer in promoting higher education in the private sector had a brilliant academic career: B.Com (Andhra University 1969 – First Rank), CA Inter (May 1971 – first Rank), CA Final (May 1973 – First Rank), ICWA Inter (July 1970 – First Rank) and ICWA Final (July 1972 – First Rank). He was the recipient of the Basu Foundation Award for the Best Student of the Year from both – The Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India (in 1972) and The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (in 1973).

During 1974-1980, Mr. Yasaswy was associated with the Administrative Staff College of India as a Faculty Member. In 1981, he started his consultancy firm, Yasaswy Management Associates (P) Limited. Hyderabad.

Mr. Yasaswy was appointed by the Government of Andhra Pradesh as Chairman, Andhra Pradesh State Trading Corporation (1985–88), and Vice-Chairman, Public Enterprises Management Board (1986–88). He was a visiting faculty member at the Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad (1986-88) and was nominated as a Member on the SEBI Committee on Accounting Standards. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of Certified International Investment Analysts (ACIIA), Switzerland. He authored several books on finance and investments.

Mr. Yasaswy set up the ICFAI group as a single institute in 1985 without governmental sops or institutional funding, in an era where government support was the norm. He chose to spend all his energy on the fledgling institution which over the years grew to become a monument to what ambition can deliver. He was instrumental in building several business schools and eleven universities in the developing states of India, particularly in the North-East region. The ICFAI Foundation for Higher Education in Hyderabad occupies pride of place among the several institutions he started and was close to his heart. He stood for professional management, excellence in the quality of education offered in the ICFAI institutions, and absolute discipline.

He was charismatic, a great teacher, an institution builder, a visionary and a genius who was years ahead of his time. His vision will continue to guide ICFAI.

Padma Shri Ashok Bhagat

Shri Ashok Bhagat is a BSc, M.A. (Political Science) and LLB from Gorakhpur University.

Shri Ashok Bhagat is an eminent Social Worker and Founder Secretary of the reputed NGO, Vikas Bharti Bishunpur, a voluntary social organization, established in 1983 for holistic development of tribals in remote villages of Jharkhand. He started to live with the community in Chingri village in Bishunpur Block, Gumla District of Jharkhand and is now popularly known as 'Baba'. During last 36 years he has done exemplary work in bringing transformation amongst the tribal and downtrodden people. He strived hard to reduce exploitation of Tribals by Zamindari system, conservation of forest resources, protection and advancement of art & culture and other burning issues related to tribal communities.

He believes and works on the principle 'Go to the people, live with them, learn from them and do work according to their needs and demands'. He developed a model for the development of tribals of the rural areas that covers Health, Hygiene, Education, Agriculture, Income generation, Conservation of forest resources, deploying appropriate Rural Technology.

His model is based on “Total transformation through total development, with people's initiative and participation” and was proved to be economically viable, locally acceptable and ecologically sustainable.

He received a number of awards of recognition for the services rendered by him. He was conferred with Padma Shri Award by Government of India in 2015 for his dedicated work on Social Development.
