An act of caring...saves the life of a 41 year old woman , who urgently needed AB(-ve) Convalescent Plasma . A Donor was identified in Gumla and was persuaded to come to Ranchi for donation...

A woman, aged 41 , was admitted in BhagawanMahavirMedicalHospital in Ranchi on 14th May 2021. As all other treatments did not show any improvement ,doctors indented for two units of AB(-ve) Convalescent Plasma. As it is a rare blood group, our students faced challenges in locating a donor. Within 24 hours, a donor was identified in Gumla ,who was persuaded to travel 94 km to Ranchi for donation. Thanks to the donor and the students of ICFAI University, Jharkhand, Transfusion could be done successfully.
