It gives us immense pleasure to bring the third edition of bi-monthly e- Newsletter 'e- Palaash' of the month December 2019. This issue has been a compilation of lot many interesting campus news which will depicts as how ICFAI University is associated with industry, society, culture and economy. This issue has brought for you new flavor that is added through information related to awards, scholarships, achievements, workshops, research, social sensitivity, cultural events, industry connectivity and many more..

We are delighted to inform that our University organized various programs and Intra university competition this month such as Legal Program on 'Domestic Violence and Crime against Women/Vulnerable Section', Aptitude Competition, Thinkamania Competition, Constitutional Law Competition and games like "A Day with Founding Father", Case study competition etc. for the budding managers, engineers and lawyers of tomorrow. To encourage the participants, the university also recognized the winners with medal and certificate of appreciation. As a regular practice of every year, on the eve of 8th NJ Yasaswy Memorial Lecture, in order to recognize and maintain value and ethics, the University felicitated faculties with awards of 'Institution Building' and students were recognized with awards for 'Student with Values'. The University for promoting research based education conducted a workshop on 'Art of research writing' for the benefit of students, faculties as well as faculties of other universities.

We congrats our PhD Scholar, Mr. Shakil Anwar Siddique for successfully completing PhD from Faculty of Management Department. On behalf of ICFAI community, we congrats our faculty, Dr. Rajesh Kumar Prasad who made us proud by winning the Best PhD Thesis Award. The award was given to Dr. Prasad at the Fourth International Conference on Sustainable Energy and Environmental Challenges (IV-SEEC), held at CSIR-National Environmental Engineering Research Institute (NEERI), Nagpur . The award included a Citation and Plaque, along with token cash award. University also congratulated Mr. Sanjay Kumar Jena, who chaired a session on Case Conference at ICMC BIMTECH Delhi.

Known for bringing good companies, our Placement cell, successfully placed some of our meritorious students in reputed organization. We congratulate students of BCA for getting selected as Developer at IB Arts Pvt. Ltd. On behalf of ICFAI Community, we are thankful for both Private as well as Public sector Organizations to visit our university campus for recruitment purposes, sharing experiences and delivering lecture to prepare and groom our students to become industry –fit.
