Panel Discussion on "Employment of Graduating Students in 2020" by Industry Experts as part of Charcha Manch Series.

Technology driven sectors like FinTech and EduTech will do well during and post COVID-19

During the recent panel discussion on employment of fresh graduates, the panellists opined that due to lockdown, the industry has gone digital in all of its operations and hence all technology driven sectors like FinTech, HealthTech, EduTech are doing well and are still recruiting talent for functions like product development, marketing and sales.
