Medical camp organized at Nagri old-age home by ICFAI University

As a part of its social outreach activities, ICFAI University, Jharkhand organized a medical camp for the residents of ViharSamaj Kalyan Sansthan, an Old Age home in Nagri, in association with BOSCH , wherein the students who are pursuing paramedical training actively participated. Blankets were distributed to the residents by the employees of the ICFAI University. Ms Richa from Shree Sai Nursing Training School, Ranchi and Mr. Manish Kumar from BOSCH India Foundation accompanied.

Addressing the residents on the occasion, Prof. Arvind Kumar, Registrar of the University said, “ICFAI University has been organising a number of social outreach activities for the benefit of the disadvantaged sections of the society. During the COVID-19 times, our University Employees distributed Bhojan Patra Food Kits to the poor people in over 10 villages in Ratu district, under the same initiative and also distributed blankets for the villagers around our University. Today’s distribution of blankets and medical campare part of this initiative.”

Mr. Pankaj Kumar, founder of Vihar Samaj Kalyan Sansthan said, “Our organisation was founded by dedicated social workers, intellectuals, educationist, medical consultants with a sole objective of geriatric care services at state Jharkhand. This old age home was set up about 20 years back and its main objective is to provide a free shelter and rehabilitate the most neglected, poor, destitute and the needy aged people. Residents of the Old Age Home are aged above 60 years. There is no caste and religious barrier. All of them are living harmoniously in a familiar atmosphere”. “We appreciate the social outreach initiatives of the University and look forward to a long term association with the University.”, added Mr Pankaj Kumar. The residents of the old-age home expressed their gratitude to the University and BOSCH for the gesture of kindness.

Faculty members of the University, including Dr SudiptaMajumdar, Dr Subarato Dey, Prof Sumit Kumar Sinha and students joined the camp.
